

RUB

Annual Meeting of “Rekonstruktive Governanceforschung“

Questioning the Unquestionable Concept of »Reflection«

New Perspectives on School Governance and Teacher Education

14 – 15 February 2020

Friday, 14 February 2020

From 12:30 Coffee and Welcoming

13:00-14:30

Public Lecture: Genealogical Notes on Teacher Research/Reflection, Personality, and the Social in Finnish Teacher Education
Johanna Sitomaniemi-San, University of Oulu, Finland

Break (15')

14:45-16:15

Coping with Educational Practice. Acts of Reflection and the Construction of the Critical Pedagogue in 1970s Teachers' Diaries
Sandra Wenk, Martin Luther University Halle-Wittenberg, Germany

Coffee Break (30')

16:45-18:15

How to Process Membership to the Pedagogical Field. Analyzing Practices of Authorization in Practice-based Teacher Education.
Melanie Schmidt, Martin Luther University Halle-Wittenberg, Germany

19:00 Joint Dinner

Saturday, 15 February 2020

09:00-10:30

A 'Reflection' on the Methodological Imperative to 'Be Reflective' of Oneself as Tackling Power Relations in Research
Camilla Safrankova, Malmö University, Sweden

10:30-12:00

'Unchanged' - Addressing Teachers as Members of the 'Learning Organization' in Longitudinal School Development Studies
Fabian Dietrich, Ruhr-Universität Bochum, Germany;
Maïke Lambrecht, Bielefeld University, Germany

Lunch Break (30')

12:30-14:00

Predictive Pedagogy – Problems of Reflection Concerning Datadriven Governance
Martin Karcher, Helmut Schmidt Universität Hamburg, Germany

14:00-14:30 Closing Discussion

From 14:30 Coffee and Farewell